(IV) Communications: City Clerk
Today was the first day of early voting in room 2200 of the Civic Center. If you haven’t yet registered to vote, you may do so at early voting by providing your name and address.

(V) Public Comment
Members of the public are welcome to speak at City Council meetings. As part of the Council agenda, a period for public comments shall be offered at the commencement of each regular Council meeting. Those wishing to speak should sign their name and the agenda item or topic to be addressed on a designated participation sheet. If there are five or fewer speakers, fifteen minutes shall be provided for Public Comment. If there are more than five speakers, a period of forty-five minutes shall be provided for all comment, and no individual shall speak longer than three minutes. The Mayor will allocate time among the speakers to ensure that Public Comment does not exceed forty-five minutes. The business of the City Council shall commence forty-five minutes after the beginning of Public Comment. Aldermen do not respond during Public Comment. Public Comment is intended to foster dialogue in a respectful and civil manner. Public comments are requested to be made with these guidelines in mind.

Two residents spoke about taxes and the 2015 proposed budget.
One resident asked about the general assistance program and the position counts included in the 2015 proposed budget.

One resident requested that the utilities department provide a more detailed analysis of their income, expenditures, and water rates.

(VI) Special Order of Business: FY2015 Budget Presentation

(VII) Call of the Wards

(Aldermen shall be called upon by the Mayor to announce or provide information about any Ward or City matter which an Alderman desires to bring before the Council.) {Council Rule 2.1(10)}

The 9th Ward Alderman reminded residents to make sure that their car doors are locked due to an increase in auto burglaries, obey traffic laws, including the ban on texting while driving, and to call the police to report suspicious activity in their neighborhood.

The 5th Ward Alderman reminded the council of the recent presentations at Council by the Our American Voices Group from the McGaw YMCA and presented the poster the students created about the Police Department’s Text-a-Tip program.

The 7th Ward Alderman thanked the budget staff and department directors for their work on the 2015 proposed budget.
