What is Rotary?

A diverse group of 1.2 million community, business, and professional leaders are members of Rotary’s 34,000 Rotary clubs in 200 countries and geographical areas.

(Including two right here in Evanston!)
What Rotary Does

Rotary clubs are actively involved in a wide range of humanitarian, intercultural, and educational activities - all designed to improve lives around the world.

Rotary members invest their time, energy, efforts and passion into service projects encompassing six areas of focus.
Six Areas of Focus

- Supporting Education
- Providing Clean Water
- Promoting Peace
- Saving Mothers and Children
- Growing Local Economies
- Fighting Disease
Rotary’s top philanthropic goal is to end polio worldwide. With a 99 percent global reduction in polio cases since 1985, Rotary and its partners are close to eliminating the second human disease in history after smallpox.

THE GLOBAL POLIO ERADICATION INITIATIVE

The fight to end polio is led by the Global Polio Eradication Initiative, which includes Rotary International, UNICEF, the U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation and governments of the world, with the support of many others around the globe.

• “Supply Chain” is defined as:

Cohesive system of people, activities, logistics, information, and resources involved in moving an item or service from the supplier to customer.

Buyers coordinate and collaborate with Suppliers in the planning and management of fulfilling the customer’s supply needs.

In essence, supply chain integrates supply and demand management across companies to form a high-performing business model.
