

What you should know about Accessible Parking

- Parking for persons with disabilities is provided in areas designated as accessible.
- The placards or plates do not allow you to park in restricted parking areas, such as “No Stopping” or “No Standing” zones or in front of fire hydrants, bus stops and loading zones.
- Parking is not permitted in access aisles -- spaces marked with lines next to the parking spaces which accommodate a person maneuvering a wheelchair, crutches or cane out of a vehicle. Violators may be fined.
- The person with disabilities must exit or enter the vehicle while it is parked in the designated parking area.
- Exempts vehicles from payment of parking meter fees or time limitations on parking, except for meters, signs or other markings with time limitations of 30 minutes or less in the state of Illinois.
- Violators of accessible parking laws may be fined $100 or more.
- Plates and placards may be revoked if abuse occurs or if obtained through fraudulent means.
