Mission

The mission of the City of Evanston Youth and Young Adult Division is to facilitate effective public/private collaborative partnerships that ensure the following:

1. Recruitment, training, and retention of an Evanston youth and young adult workforce that possess the skill sets needed to compete in the 21st century economy;
2. Academic, vocational, certificate and entrepreneurial internships, externships and apprenticeship programming opportunities;
3. Coordination of City of Evanston programs and projects that impact youth and young adults;

Vision Statement

Provide opportunities for all Evanston youth and young adults to become active and productive citizens of the community through strengthening existing youth services, establishing a network of service partnerships, increasing participation within the available local opportunities, creating marketable job training and placement, and increasing the opportunities for social and recreational outlets for disengaged youth.
Our comprehensive youth development program model gives young people with life challenges, multiple, closely aligned pathways to success.

- Community Mobilization
  Involvement of local citizens (including former gang-involved youth), community groups, agencies, and coordination of programs and staff functions within and across agencies.

- Opportunities Provision
  Development of a variety of specific education programs, training and employment programs targeting at-risk and gang-involved youth and young adults.

- Social Intervention
  Involving youth serving agencies (schools, grassroots groups, faith-based organizations, and other juvenile/criminal justice organizations) in “reaching out” to at-risk and gang-involved youth and young adults and their families, and linking them to the conventional world and needed services.

- Suppression
  Formal and informal social control procedures, including case management and monitoring of at-risk and gang involved youth and young adults by the criminal justice system, community-based agencies, schools, and grassroots groups.

- Organizational Change and Development
  Development and implementation of policies and procedures that result in the most effective use of available and potential resources, within and across agencies, to better address the development of at-risk and gang-involved youth and young adults.

Elizabeth B. Tisdhal
Former Mayor, City of Evanston

“The Youth and Young Adult Division does extraordinary outreach to young people and their families. The Division is responsible for increasing the number of jobs in the Mayor’s Summer Youth Employment Program from 163 in 2012 to over 750 year-round today. Access to summer jobs, activities, apprenticeships, and workforce training have all improved dramatically. Our community is well served by the Youth and Young Adult Division. We have great young people in this community. Now they have more opportunities to shine.”

Cicely L. Fleming
OPAL Evanston

“As a lifelong resident of Evanston, parent, and community leader, I am impressed with the City of Evanston’s Youth and Young Adult Division and appreciative of their work. The mission of this department is vital to reaching our city’s most disenfranchised and neglected young people. I see the Outreach Workers in the community making connections, providing support to ensure that youth understand their value to our city. With the unfortunate rise in youth violence (some resulting in deaths) it is vital that we keep this department fully staffed and even growing. While many people are looking for solutions, the Youth Division is playing an active role in the streets of Evanston reaching those who many others don’t know exist. Thank you for your work, your passion, and your selfless commitment to our City.”

Richard Eddington
Former Chief of Police, City of Evanston

“By tirelessly seeking ongoing employment opportunities for the youth of the community, the Youth and Young Adult Division has created a productive workforce for Evanston. The division also has contributed greatly to public safety. While intervening in potentially violent situations its outreach workers have, in my opinion, defused many potentially violent situations over the course of the past two summers. My further opinion is that they contributed substantially to the reduction of retaliatory shootings during summer 2015.”

When funding permits, the City of Evanston provides for qualifying employers financial subsidies for full and part-time positions. Subsidized positions at local businesses increases the industry diversity of available positions through the Mayor’s Summer Youth Employment Program. This program also allows youth and young adults to build supportive and positive networks with the community.

Northwestern University hired six young adults from Evanston as part of a new training program in partnership with the city to teach skilled trades to local young people and prepare them for full-time jobs at Northwestern and elsewhere. Under the Northwestern/Evanston Skilled Trades Training Program, Evanston residents participated in a one-year paid training program in the University’s Facilities Management Division. At the end of the year, the young people were hired into full-time jobs at the University or with private employers. The participants received mentoring and life skills coaching from the University and the City.

20 Hired into Long-Term Employment (18 hired at NU)

$330,000 Annual Investment (4 years)

“The launch of our inaugural Skilled Trades Training Program would not have been possible without the incredible help and support from Kevin Brown and his team. Our collaborative effort to make this program a reality exemplifies what we can accomplish by working together. It is also clear from the dedication and commitment of the six young adults from Evanston (who are currently working in our Building Trades) that we have a wealth of untapped potential and talent right here in our own neighborhood who we may not have found without Kevin and his team.”

Former Director of Human Resources
Facilities Management
Northwestern University
Floor Installation Training and Apprenticeship
Offered in partnership with Mr. David’s Flooring

Initiated in 2015, the program provided Evanston residents with an opportunity to become unionized flooring installers. After completing a one year hands-on assistantship, participants completed a four year apprenticeship on track to become a member of local union.

14 Adults Employed
3,300 Hours of Work
$60,000 Wages brought back into the community

“We are grateful to your team for connecting us with a group of good hardworking young men. They have worked well with our team of installers and we are trying to use them on a continuing base. Some of them are now in the union and that will allow them to be on a list to be called by other flooring contractors. We will continue to keep them busy as our work allows, and our hope is that they grow into fine installers. This program would not be possible without your help.”

Dick Buckman
Mr. David’s Flooring
Commercial Drivers License (CDL) Training & Certification
Offered in partnership with Oakton Community College
Initiated in 2014, the City collaborated with Oakton Community College to provide an eight-week training and certification program to help community members prepare for the Illinois Commercial Driver’s License (CDL) exam. The partnership includes training, driving instruction, and CDL exam fees. Eligible individuals may qualify for tuition assistance up to 100 percent of the program cost through the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA).

"Like the City of Evanston, Continuing Education at Oakton Community College is dedicated to providing opportunities to help individuals obtain jobs in sustainable careers with sustainable wages. We were very happy to partner with the City of Evanston to provide this great training opportunity to residents of Evanston. Because of the support of the City of Evanston, the truck driving graduates served are now in a position to enter into great careers and thus change the trajectory of their lives. What a great outcome from this partnership."

Jesse Wade Ivory, Ed.D Manager
Oakton Community College

Transportation Construction Apprenticeship Readiness Partnership
Offered in partnership with United Services of Chicago, Inc. and Chicago Urban League
Initiated in 2014, this program is designed to improve opportunities for local workforce minorities, disadvantaged persons and women and to promote economic stability. Participants attend classes that focus on highway construction trades and workforce development.

Services
Advocacy and Supportive Services

In addition to initiating numerous workforce development programs, the Outreach Staff services Evanston residents of all ages, skills, and income levels in order to help them achieve self-sufficiency through gainful employment and stability. It is not uncommon for individuals to have additional circumstances that need attention before they can achieve economic self-sufficiency. Examples of miscellaneous services provided are: providing transportation to interviews, conflict resolution and mediation, court advocacy, applying for public assistance, childcare referrals, assisting clients with obtaining identification documents, academic advocacy, and more.

*Some services included in Family Support: referrals for mental health services, referrals for substance abuse counseling, enrollment assistance for childcare, referrals to energy bill assistance program, health care enrollment support, etc.
Initiated in 2018, the annual Summer Kingian Nonviolence Institute in Evanston is a six-week paid employment program for Evanston Township High School (ETHS) students. Following this intensive - and fun - learning experience and practicum, students become Certified Kingian Nonviolence Trainers and help facilitate a "peace in the schools" program at ETHS. Student nonviolent practitioners work to build community in the school. They have the tools to encourage students not to retaliate in moments of conflict, but to think first and work to reduce violence by de-escalating altercations. This program offers participants a grounding in the philosophy and practice of nonviolence along with basic organizing skills necessary to mount a nonviolent campaign on behalf of a social or economic cause.

Participants learn...

- the types and levels of conflict
- the Principles and Six Steps of nonviolence conflict resolution
- how to conduct a nonviolence campaign
- the history of the Civil Rights Movement and Chicago Freedom Movement
- how to build the Beloved Community
Certificate of Rehabilitation program
Expungement/Records Sealing/Clemency
Offered in partnership with The James B. Moran Center for Youth Advocacy

Initiated in 2013, the program works to support a productive community re-entry for Evanston residents with a criminal record who have not offended in 24 months. Certificates of Rehabilitation, criminal records expungement, and the sealing of non-violent felony convictions are an essential resource that can offer support re-entry to eligible Evanston residents. These resources also promote public safety by lifting statutory bars to jobs, licenses, or other necessities such as housing that result from a conviction history.

11 Health Care Worker Waivers
3 Clemency
7 Certificates of Rehabilitation
15 Other*

*The miscellaneous legal services that have been rendered include: Motions to Vacate Judgement of Bond Forfeiture, Motions for Partial Fee Waiver, Petitions for Identity Theft, Motions to Vacate a Felon Conviction (replace with sealable misdemeanor conviction), Appealing DCFS negative findings of abuse and/or neglect, and more. This category does not capture all requests for legal assistance that have been made by the Certificate of Rehabilitation Initiative clients.

"The Youth and Young Adult Division staff provides critical social, educational, and workforce development resources. We greatly appreciate the close working relationship and value the manner in which the staff deal compassionately and collaboratively with our clients and their families, who are often facing numerous, serious challenges. Their tireless advocacy makes our community a better place. We applaud the Youth and Young Adult Division’s shared commitment to championing the rights of individuals who are often underserved in our community, and we are deeply grateful for the City’s commitment to ensuring that all Evanston children receive the education, services, and fundamental justice to which they are entitled.”

Kathy Lyons, Former Executive Director
The Moran Center
Mentorship
Offered in partnership with Evanston/Skokie District 65
Outreach staff provides mentorship and life skills to a group of selected middle school students every school year. Group topics include: goal setting, conflict resolution, workforce development and career guidance, dealing with peer pressure, and other life skills necessary for them to be successful going into high school.

Housing Support
The outreach team facilitates clients' access to shelter and facilities, as well as proximity to transportation. With proper housing support, clients are able to focus on pursuing employment and training opportunities without the concern for safety that homelessness presents.
Friends' Meal Program
A local restaurateur provides dinner on a frequent basis for an Evanston family. In respect of the families' confidentiality the outreach team coordinates the selection of the family and delivery of the meal.

Mental Health Support
Offered in partnership with:
The Family Institute (Northwestern University)
The Chicago School of Professional Psychology
Naomi Ruth Cohen Institute for Mental Health Education
Evanston Township High School

Year long program created to increase mental health awareness and access to mental health services, especially in the African-American community of Chicago’s North Shore. The pilot served summer job youth, and due to consistent program success has continued to be a part of the Mayor’s Summer Youth Employment Program.
Community Quotes

Todd Schneider
Clinical Director, The Learning House

"I want to extend our appreciation for your ongoing work with one of the students we serve. The complexities of this case have been expensive and your program has, from the day of enrollment, joined along side our school in order to provide both support and resources in order to promote the student’s overall success. The fluid communication between programs, your willingness to attend meetings, the direct communication with the family, and your promotion of the student’s school attendance are just a few examples of your organization’s dedication."

Evanston Mother of Three

"My daughter worked at the Foster Reading Program through the Youth Division and they have supplied us with pizza dinners at times. The Youth and Young Adult Division is a very wonderful and resourceful program. They are a help to the entire community."

Mary Collins
Community Services Coordinator, Evanston Township HS

"I appreciate the efforts of the City of Evanston Outreach team to offer relevant programs and activities that appeal to all different types of young people (Interrupters program, School Safety Forum, outpost and programming at Mason Park, summer jobs program, etc.). Thank you for reaching out and for recognizing the need for our whole community to work together to address the critical needs of our youth."

Client Testimony

"I’ve looked for jobs everywhere and no one would accept me with my background... I did something that can cost me to lose so much and also something I’ve worked so hard for. I have come so far with this job. It has helped me with supporting my family. It has opened my eyes to the bigger picture of working for what you want/need is way better than committing crimes to get it. This job has helped me stay out of violence that was going on, even police [have been] applauding me. I’ve met supportive people that I will never forget that even made me think about furthering my education in college."
