

Together Present

THE MEMORY ENSEMBLE™

AN IMPROVISATIONAL THEATRE EXPERIENCE FOR PERSONS WITH MEMORY LOSS

.....

This research program offers individuals with memory loss a unique and enriching experience through the exploration of improvisational theatre. Improvisational theater is a form of acting in which actors use techniques to perform spontaneously. No acting experience is required! Focusing on the Lookingglass Theatre Company's core values of invention, transformation, and collaboration, members of The Memory Ensemble will learn to use their instincts, creativity and spontaneity as they work together to explore and create improvisational theater. Workshops are led by Lookingglass Ensemble members and CNADC staff.

No improvisation, performance or acting experience is required!

Sessions provide:

- Improvisational acting instruction
- Engaging the mind/brain in new ways
- Opportunities for creative expression
- Social engagement
- Emotional support network

INTERVIEW REQUIRED TO PARTICIPATE.

There is a $150 charge to participate in this program. Scholarships are available.
Discount parking ($10) is provided.
Participation in the research of this program is optional.

For more information, please contact Lauren Dowden, MSW, LCSW
(312) 503-0604 or lauren.dowden1@northwestern.edu

Northwestern IRB # STU00022711