JUNE 13–28
SPELL #7 by Ntozake Shange
This story is about a group of friends who are actors, musicians, and performers taking up space in a local bar. In a series of dreamlike vignettes and poetic monologues, they commiserate about the difficulties they face as black artists and ultimately, in the end it proclaims inner self respect as the essential quality of Black pride and Black identity.

The intended theme is race and the lies we tell each other on the subject. This is a provocative tale of sex, guilt, and bold accusations. Mamet turns the spotlight on what we think but can’t say, dangerous truths are revealed, and no punches are spared.

ADA prohibits discrimination on the basis of disability. The City has established a committee to review its programs and policies and welcomes suggestions from interested individuals. Reasonable accommodations will be made in recreation programs, activities and services to enable participation by an individual with a disability.

To aid staff in making accommodations, please contact them no later than two weeks in advance of the program by calling one of the phone numbers listed below, by writing or in person (three weeks’ notice is even more helpful). The time line for summer camps is no later than 10 days in advance of a program.

If you have any questions about the Parks, Recreation and Community Services Department’s policies regarding ADA, please call 847-424-5496 (voice); 847-448-8064 (TTY); 800-526-0857 (Illinois Relay Center voice transmission).

Equal Opportunity
As the City of Evanston has received federal financial assistance, the U.S. Department of the Interior, under Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, prohibits discrimination on the basis of race, color, national origin, age or handicap. If you believe that you have been subjected to discrimination in any program, activity or facility, or if you desire further information regarding Title VI, please write to: Office for Equal Opportunity, U.S. Department of the Interior, Washington, D.C. 20240.
